

All in a Garden Green

from the English Dancing Master, 1651

Publ. by John Playford (1623-1686)

C C F C F C G C

All in a gar - den green Two lov - ers sat at ease, As Quoth he, "Most love - ly maid, My troth shall aye en - dure; And When I am gray and old, And then must stoop to age, I'll No guile he meant, I ween, For he was true as steel, As they could scarce be seen A - mong the leaf - y trees.

F C F C G C

 be not thou a - fraid, But rest thee still se - cure.
 love thee twen - ty - fold, My troth I here en - gage."
 was there - af - ter seen, When she made him her weal."

C F G C C

They long had lov'd y - fere, And no longer That I will love thee long song, As life in She list - ed his long song, And heard in Full soon both two were wed, And these most

All in a Garden Green

G C F C Dm

than truly,
me shall last;
with a smile,
faith-ful lovers

In Now And May
that I in - no -
serve time am -
cent at

of strong board,
the and as at
year young,
young, bed,

C F C(no3rd) G C G(no3rd) C

In that time
Now I am
And in - no - May serve at

of the year
strong and young,
board, as young,
at bed,

Cometh and
She 'twixt my youth Ex - am - ple to

'twixt May and Ju -
when my youth is dream - ed not of am - ple to all

ly.
past.
guile.
others.