

Loue is a bable

from the Second Booke of Songs and Ayres, 1601

Robert Jones (fl. 1597-1615)

G G G Em D G A D

Loue,
Loues
Loue
Loue,

loue,
loues
loue
loue,

loue,
loues
loue
loue,

loue,
loues
loue
loue,

Loue is a ba - ble,
fayre i' th Cra - dle,
Loue is a fel - lowe,
Loue is a woon - der,

G D D A Bm D Am

Loue is a ba - ble,
fayre i' th Cra - dle,
Loue is a fel - lowe,
Loue is a woon - der,

No
Foule
clad
That's

man is a - ble
in the sa - ble,
oft in yel - lowe,
here and yon - der,

To Tis
The
As

say tis
ey - ther too
can - ker -
com - mon to

G#dim E D Am Bm G C D

this or tis
cold or too worme of the one as to

that,
hot,
mind,
moe,

Tis full of
An ar - rand
A priu - ie
A mon - strous

pas - sions
ly - ar,
mis - chiefe,
chea - ter,

D D Am Em D A D A D

Of sun - dry fa - shions,
Fed by de - sire,
And such a slye thiefe, Eue - rie mans deb - ter,

Tis like tis
It is it
No man no
Hang him, hang

A D A D A D Bm Em

like tis like
is it is
man no man
him, hang him,

I can - not
and yet it
knowes which waie
and so let,

I can - not
and yet it
knowes which waie
and so let,

I can - not
and yet it
knowes which waie
and so let,

Am D D D C G Am G D G

Tis like
It is,
No man
Hang him,

tis like
It is and
No man knowes Hang him, and

I can - not
and yet it
knowes which waie
and so let

can - not tell
yet it is
which waie to
so let him

what.
not.
find.
goe.