

Farewel dear loue

the First Booke of Songes & Ayres, 1600

Robert Jones (fl.1597-1615)

Gm D Bb F Dm Gm C D

Fare - wel dear loue since thou wilt needs be gon,
 Fare - well, fare - well, since this I finde is true,
 Ten thou - sand times fare - well, yet stay a while,
 Once more shall fare - well, I see loth to de - part;
 What shall I doe? my loue is now de - parted,

F Bb F Bb Gm C D(no3rd) G

Mine eies do shew my life is al - most done.
 I will not spend once, my more time in woo - ing you:
 Sweet kisse me once, sweet to her that holdes my guile:
 Bids oft a - dew faire as shee is cru - ell hart:
 Shee is as faire as shee is cru - ell harted:

Nay I will ne - uer die, So long as I can spie,
 But I will seeke els - where, If I may find her there,
 I haue no power to moue, How now, am I in loue?
 But see - ing I must loose, Thy loue which I did chuse:
 Shee would not be in - treated, With praiers oft re - peat - ed:

There be ma - ny mo Thought that she do
 Shall I bid her goe, What and if I
 Wilt thou needs be gone? Go then, all is Go thy waies for me, Since it may not
 If shee come no more, Shall I die there -
