

Old 100th

Genevan Psalter 1551

88 88

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in the key of D major. The music is written in a style characteristic of the Genevan Psalter, featuring a mix of whole, half, and quarter notes, often in a homophonic texture. The piece begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff contains a melody of whole and half notes, while the second staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece on two staves. It maintains the same key signature and rhythmic patterns as the first system. The melody in the treble clef staff shows some melodic movement, including a half note followed by a quarter note. The bass clef staff continues to provide a steady accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line.
