

Coronation A&S Competition

- Entries cannot have won any previous competition.
- There is no pre-registration. Entrants will fill out a brief form at the event.
- Deadline for sign-up at the event is 11:30, entries must be set up by noon (enter and set up early if you don't want to miss court!). Entries should be collected at approximately 3:30-4:00.
- There are no "categories" for this competition.
- Entrants may enter as many items as they wish. Each item will be considered a separate entry and scored individually unless they are specifically entered as a "group" (for example "collection of fingerlooped braids" or "pens and inks"). Items may not be entered both individually and as part of a group.
- Performance entries must be limited to five minutes. Performance entrants are requested to contact Lady Briony prior to Coronation at brionyodee@optonline.net for convenience only. Entrants will be accepted for performance entries at the event, but will earn a stern look from the coordinator.
- Judging criteria: Each piece will receive a score of 1-5 on the following criteria:
 - Workmanship: does the entrant show a strong level of accomplishment in the skills used in creating the piece? Are there obvious errors in the finished look of the item?
 - Authenticity: how true to the specified period is the piece and the materials used?
 - Creativity: how well does the entrant expand on primary sources to make something unique yet true to that period? How well are problems encountered in production solved?
 - Documentation: how well does the entrant demonstrate the authenticity of his/her work and materials? How well do they guide the reader through their creative process in designing and executing their entry?
 - The maximum score for an entry is 20, however up to three "extra credit" points can be earned for how well the piece fits in with the "royalty" theme.
- Prizes: There will be a prize for the highest scoring piece as well as a populous choice and best "royalty" themed piece.
 - All judges scores will be added together to generate the final score which will be used to select the winner.
- Entrants will be able to take home their score sheets with comments at the end of the day. They are also welcome to invite comments from the general populous, but must supply writing implements and paper for them.
- Naturally, the populous is encouraged to leave tokens for those whose work pleases them!!
