

A Secret loue or two

from Two Bookes of Ayers, the Second Booke, Light Conceits of Lovers, 1613

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Gm Eb Cm D Gm C F Bb F Gm

A Se - cret loue or two I must con - fesse, I kind - ly
The more a spring is drawne, the more it flows, No Lamp lesse
Wise arch - ers beare more than one shaft to field, The Ven - turer

F C F Dm A Dm Bb Gm C D C

wel - come for change in close play - ing: Yet my deare hus - band I light re - taines by light - ning o - thers: Is hee a loos - er his loads not with one ware his ship - ping: Should War - riors learne but one

F Dm G C C Am D Gm D Gm Eb F

loue ne'er the lesse, His de - sires, whole or halfe, quick - ly al - loss that ne'er knowes? Or is he weal - thy that wast trea - sure wea - pon to wiede? Or thriue faire plants ere the worse for the

Bb F Bb Gm C D Cm D

lay - ing, smo - thers? slip - ping?
 At all time My churle vows One dish cloyes, rea - dy to no man shall ma - ny fresh of - fer re - sent his sweet ap - pe - tite dresse. Rose. yeeld.

Bb Eb Cm F Bb F Bb F

His owne hee neu - er wants but hath it due - ly,
 His owne e - nough and more I giue him due - ly,
 Mine owne Ile vse, and his he shall haue due - ly,

Bb F Bb F Gm D(no3rd) G

Yet twits mee I keepe not touch with him true - ly,
 Yet still he twits mee I keepe not touch true - ly,
 Iudge then, what debt - er can keepe touch more tru - ly.